Executive Director and CEO Dr. Evalyn Gates recently assisted a class of fourth graders at Hathaway Brown School with its creation of an Ohio Through Time Museum. She met with students, answered questions and challenged them to create a museum with interactive exhibits to teach other students at the school about prehistoric Native Americans. The Ohio Through Time Museum opened in January for one week to kindergarten through fourth grade students, their parents and faculty.