Education Innovation Summit
Hathaway Brown School
Nov. 6, 2010
Venue: Hathaway Brown School, Shaker Heights

Nearly 600 educators from the U.S. and Canada attended Hathaway Brown’s three-day summit to find out how schools can create cultures of innovation. The final day included a keynote address from Manchester Bidwell Corp. president and CEO Bill Strickland. Sessions centered on the theme of keeping innovation alive, and a final lunch session by author Michael Ruhlman and chef Jonathon Sawyer showed what schools can learn from the restaurant revolution.

1 Bill Strickland, Manchester Bidwell Corp. 2 Jonathon Sawyer, Greenhouse Tavern 3 Bill Christ, Hathaway Brown 4 Helen Williams, The Cleveland Foundation; Ann Mullin, The George Gund Foundation; Bob Hallett, The Edward E. Ford Foundation 5 Michael Brosnan, Independent School Magazine; Paul Tough, writer and author; Edith Starzyk, The Plain Dealer; Lindsey Christ, NY1 6 Jennifer Thomas, John S. and James L. Knight Foundation 7 Steve Gleydura, Inside Business; Chris Thompson, Fund for Our Economic Future; Cathy Belk, JumpStart Inc.; Baiju Shah, Bio Enterprise