HBTI PRIME

Grades 1-4

HBTI Prime sessions (one through three) are for students in grades 1–4 and provide a creative and enriching experience in drama, music, dance and fine arts. Students will have the opportunity to explore the performing arts with fun and age-appropriate activities.

PERFORMING ARTS TRAINING

Grade 5-college

Each student will pick a focus - Acting, Dance, Musical Theatre, and NEW Advanced Acting Workshops. There are six total hours of class per day, and 30 minutes for lunch. Each focus has required classes. Students will be assigned to appropriate classes based on age and experience.

ACTING FOCUS

The goal of the acting program is to learn to “live truthfully within imaginary circumstances.” HBTI has a multi-level approach to acting training with emphasis on imagination, action, and characterization. Each level offers new techniques that help students rediscover their imagination, open their senses and develop their physical instruments.

DANCE FOCUS

The goal of the Dance Focus is to develop a broad movement repertoire. Students will be able to physically and intellectually demonstrate their mastery of dance technique, movement vocabulary and dance terminology.

MUSICAL THEATRE FOCUS

The Musical Theatre Focus is designed to develop students in three artistic disciplines - acting, dance and voice - the “triple threat performer.” Students will learn the same principles as described in the “acting” and “dance” focus with the addition of training in music and voice. Students will be placed in a series of courses in all three disciplines to move their skills forward and help them grow artistically.

ADVANCED ACTING WORKSHOPS

Grade 9-college

ACTING THROUGH MUSICAL THEATRE PRODUCTION

June 15-June 24 / 9:00 a.m. – 3:30 p.m. / $417

This workshop will take the student directly into the rehearsals of a musical production by fully integrating performance techniques into an in-house production to be performed for HBTI students at the end of two weeks. This workshop has been created for individuals with strong singing and movement abilities.

SHAKESPEARE

July 6 – July 24 / 9:00 a.m.-1:00 p.m. / $417

This 3-week, 4-hours-a-day workshop will immerse the student in the world of William Shakespeare. In this workshop student will learn the fundamentals of iambic pentameter, scansion and how to approach Shakespeare's work through the use of action. Students will work to develop full scenes to be performed in-house for HBTI students at the end of the session. This workshop is for high school and college-age students.

ACTING FOR THE CAMERA Details TBA.

ACTING THROUGH PLAY PRODUCTION

(Comedy or Drama)

July 27 – August 7 / 9:00 a.m. – 3:30 p.m. / $417

This two week workshop will offer the student the opportunity to fully immerse themselves into the rehearsal of dramatic straight play by fully integrating performance techniques into an in-house production to be performed for HBTI students at the end of the session. This workshop is for performer's with previous acting experience. Enrollment is limited; interested students will need to audition and spots for the workshop will be filled on a first-served basis. This workshop is for high school and college age students.

HBTI Productions

These productions are intended as a “lab experience” to complement our daytime training–train with some of the best instructors in town and apply what you have learned in full scale productions.
